

The Global Environment & Technology Foundation's President and CEO Monica Ellis, along with Vice Chairman Hank Habicht, recently endorsed the Center for Strategic & International Studies' (CSIS) "Declaration on U.S. Policy and the Global Challenge of Water". The Declaration, which was launched by Co-Chairmen Senator William H. Frist and The Coca-Cola Company's Chairman E. Neville Isdell, calls on the United States to launch a bold, new international campaign to address the global challenge of water.

More information regarding the Declaration, including the document in its entirety, can be found at <http://gsi.csis.org/declaration>.
